REDAN FUN TO LEARN

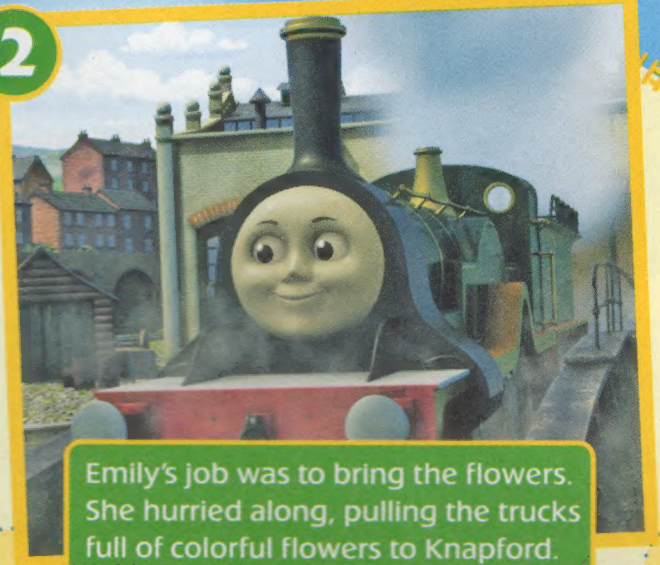
A Blooming Mess!

A Story from the Island of Sodor

1

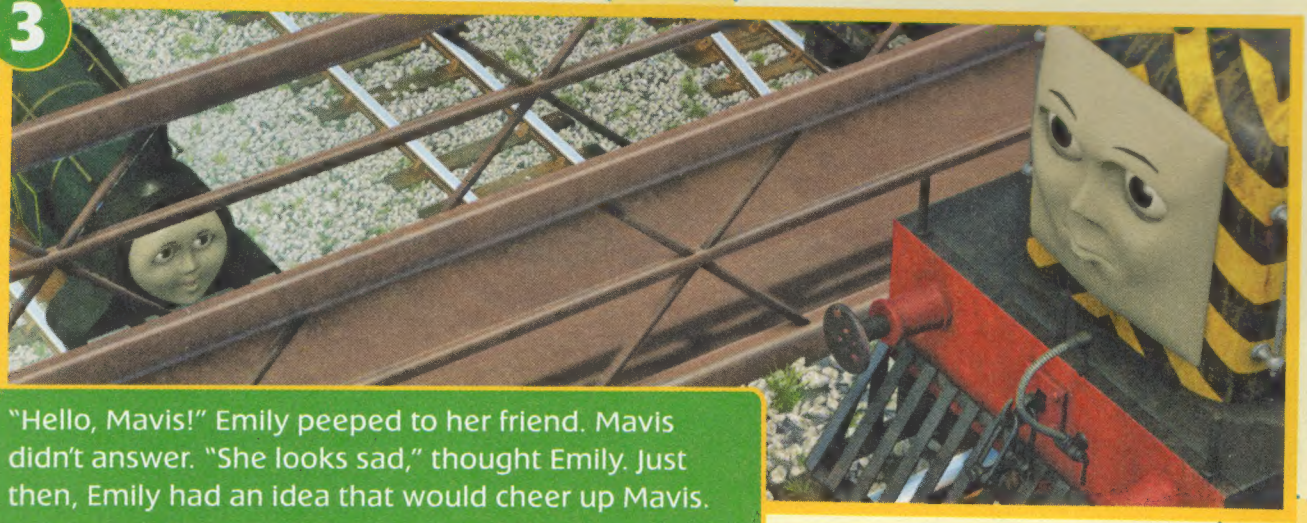
It was a fine day on the Island of Sodor. The engines were going to help decorate Knapford Station!

2



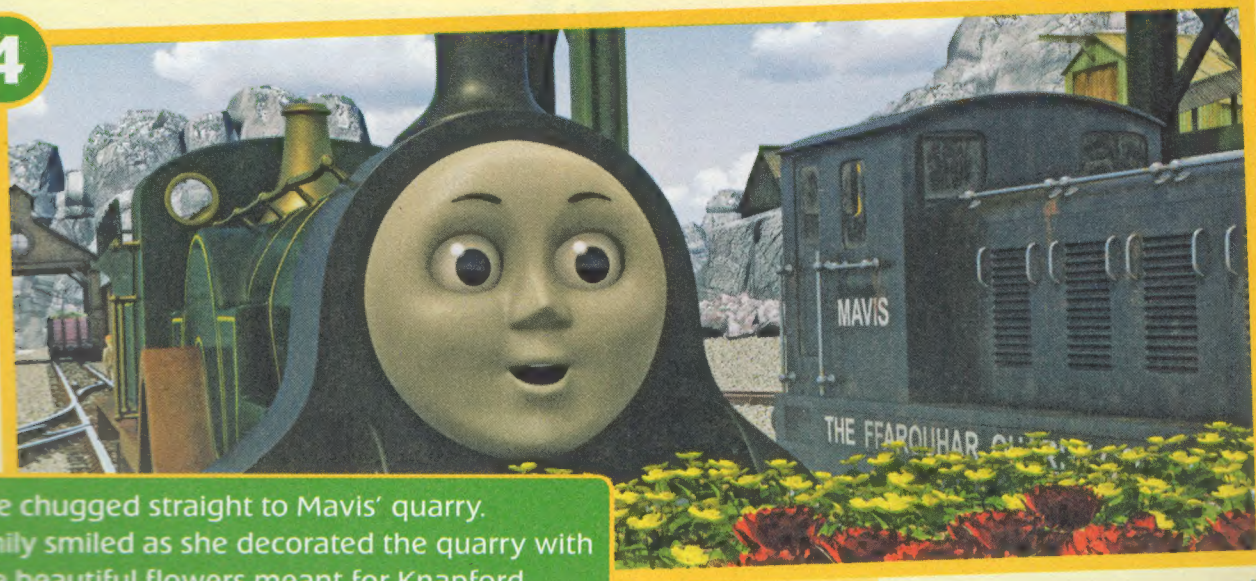
Emily's job was to bring the flowers. She hurried along, pulling the trucks full of colorful flowers to Knapford.

3



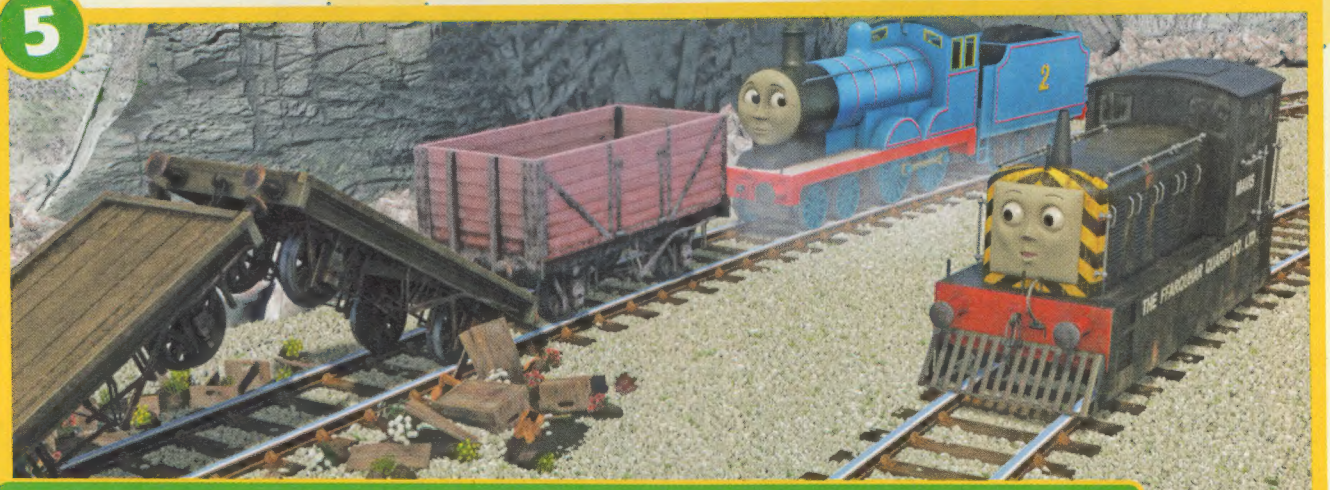
"Hello, Mavis!" Emily peeped to her friend. Mavis didn't answer. "She looks sad," thought Emily. Just then, Emily had an idea that would cheer up Mavis.

4



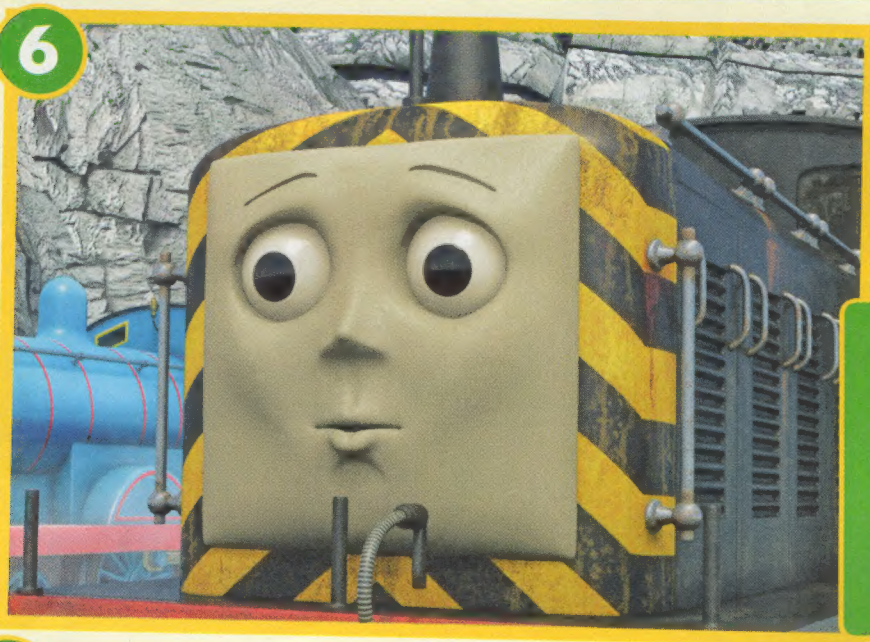
She chugged straight to Mavis' quarry. Emily smiled as she decorated the quarry with the beautiful flowers meant for Knapford.

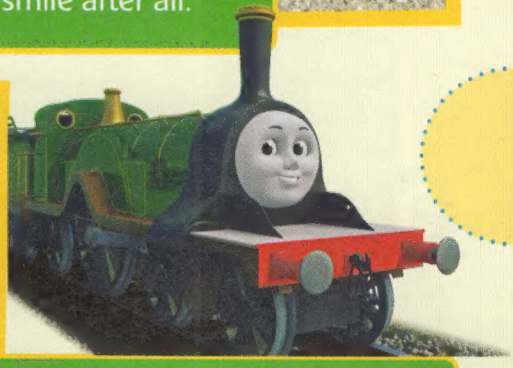
5



Then there was trouble! Edward didn't see the trucks. "Bust my buffers!" he shouted as he crashed into a flower truck. Mavis quickly puffed over to help. "What a mess!" she shouted. The flowers hadn't made Mavis smile after all.

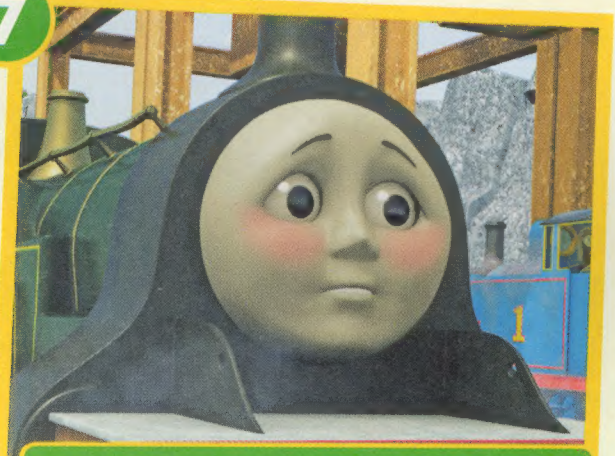
6





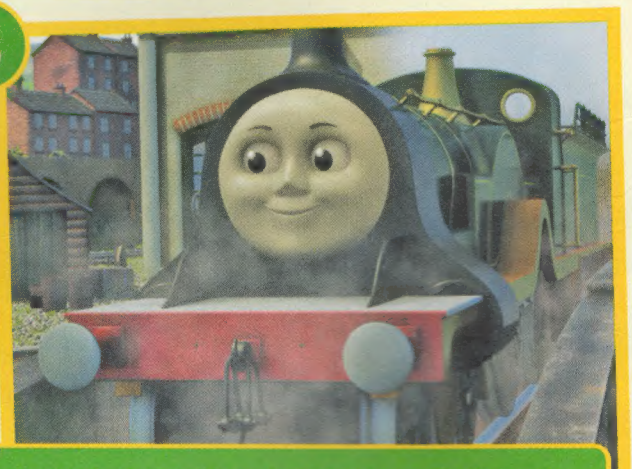
"I'm sorry," said Emily. "You looked so sad this morning. I brought you flowers to make you smile!" "I wasn't sad," puffed Mavis. "I was just busy. And now I have more work to do with all of this mess!"

7



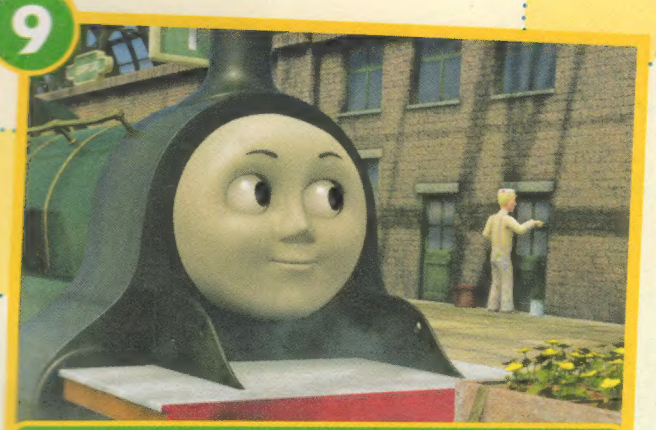
Emily knew she had made a mistake. She should have asked Mavis before she left the flowers at the quarry.

8



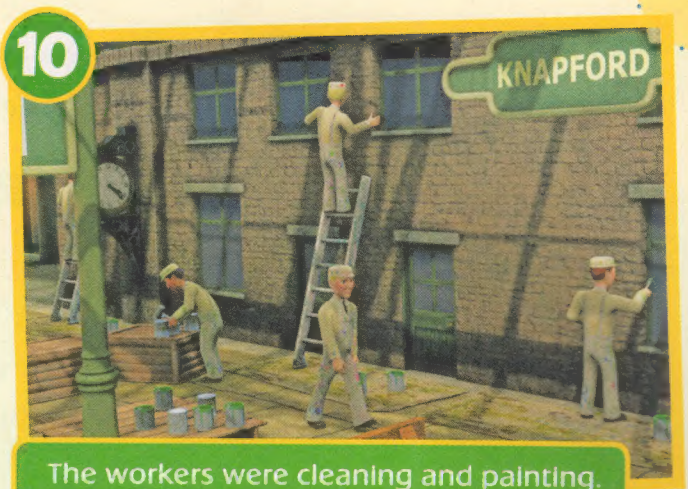
"I think this will make Mavis smile!" Emily peeped as she cleaned up the mess and helped Edward get back on track.

9



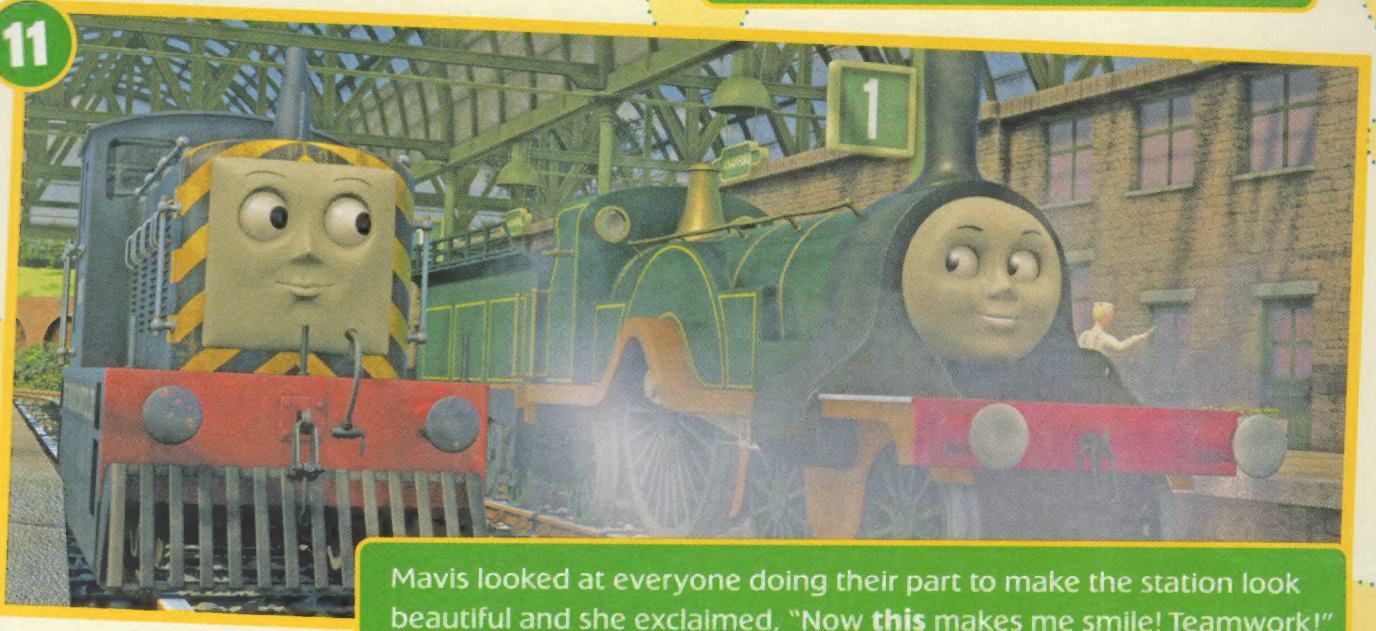
Emily filled her trucks up with flowers again and soon arrived at Knapford. Everyone was busy fixing up the station!

10



The workers were cleaning and painting. Everyone worked together to decorate Knapford Station and make it sparkle.

11



Mavis looked at everyone doing their part to make the station look beautiful and she exclaimed, "Now this makes me smile! Teamwork!"

Quiz Time!

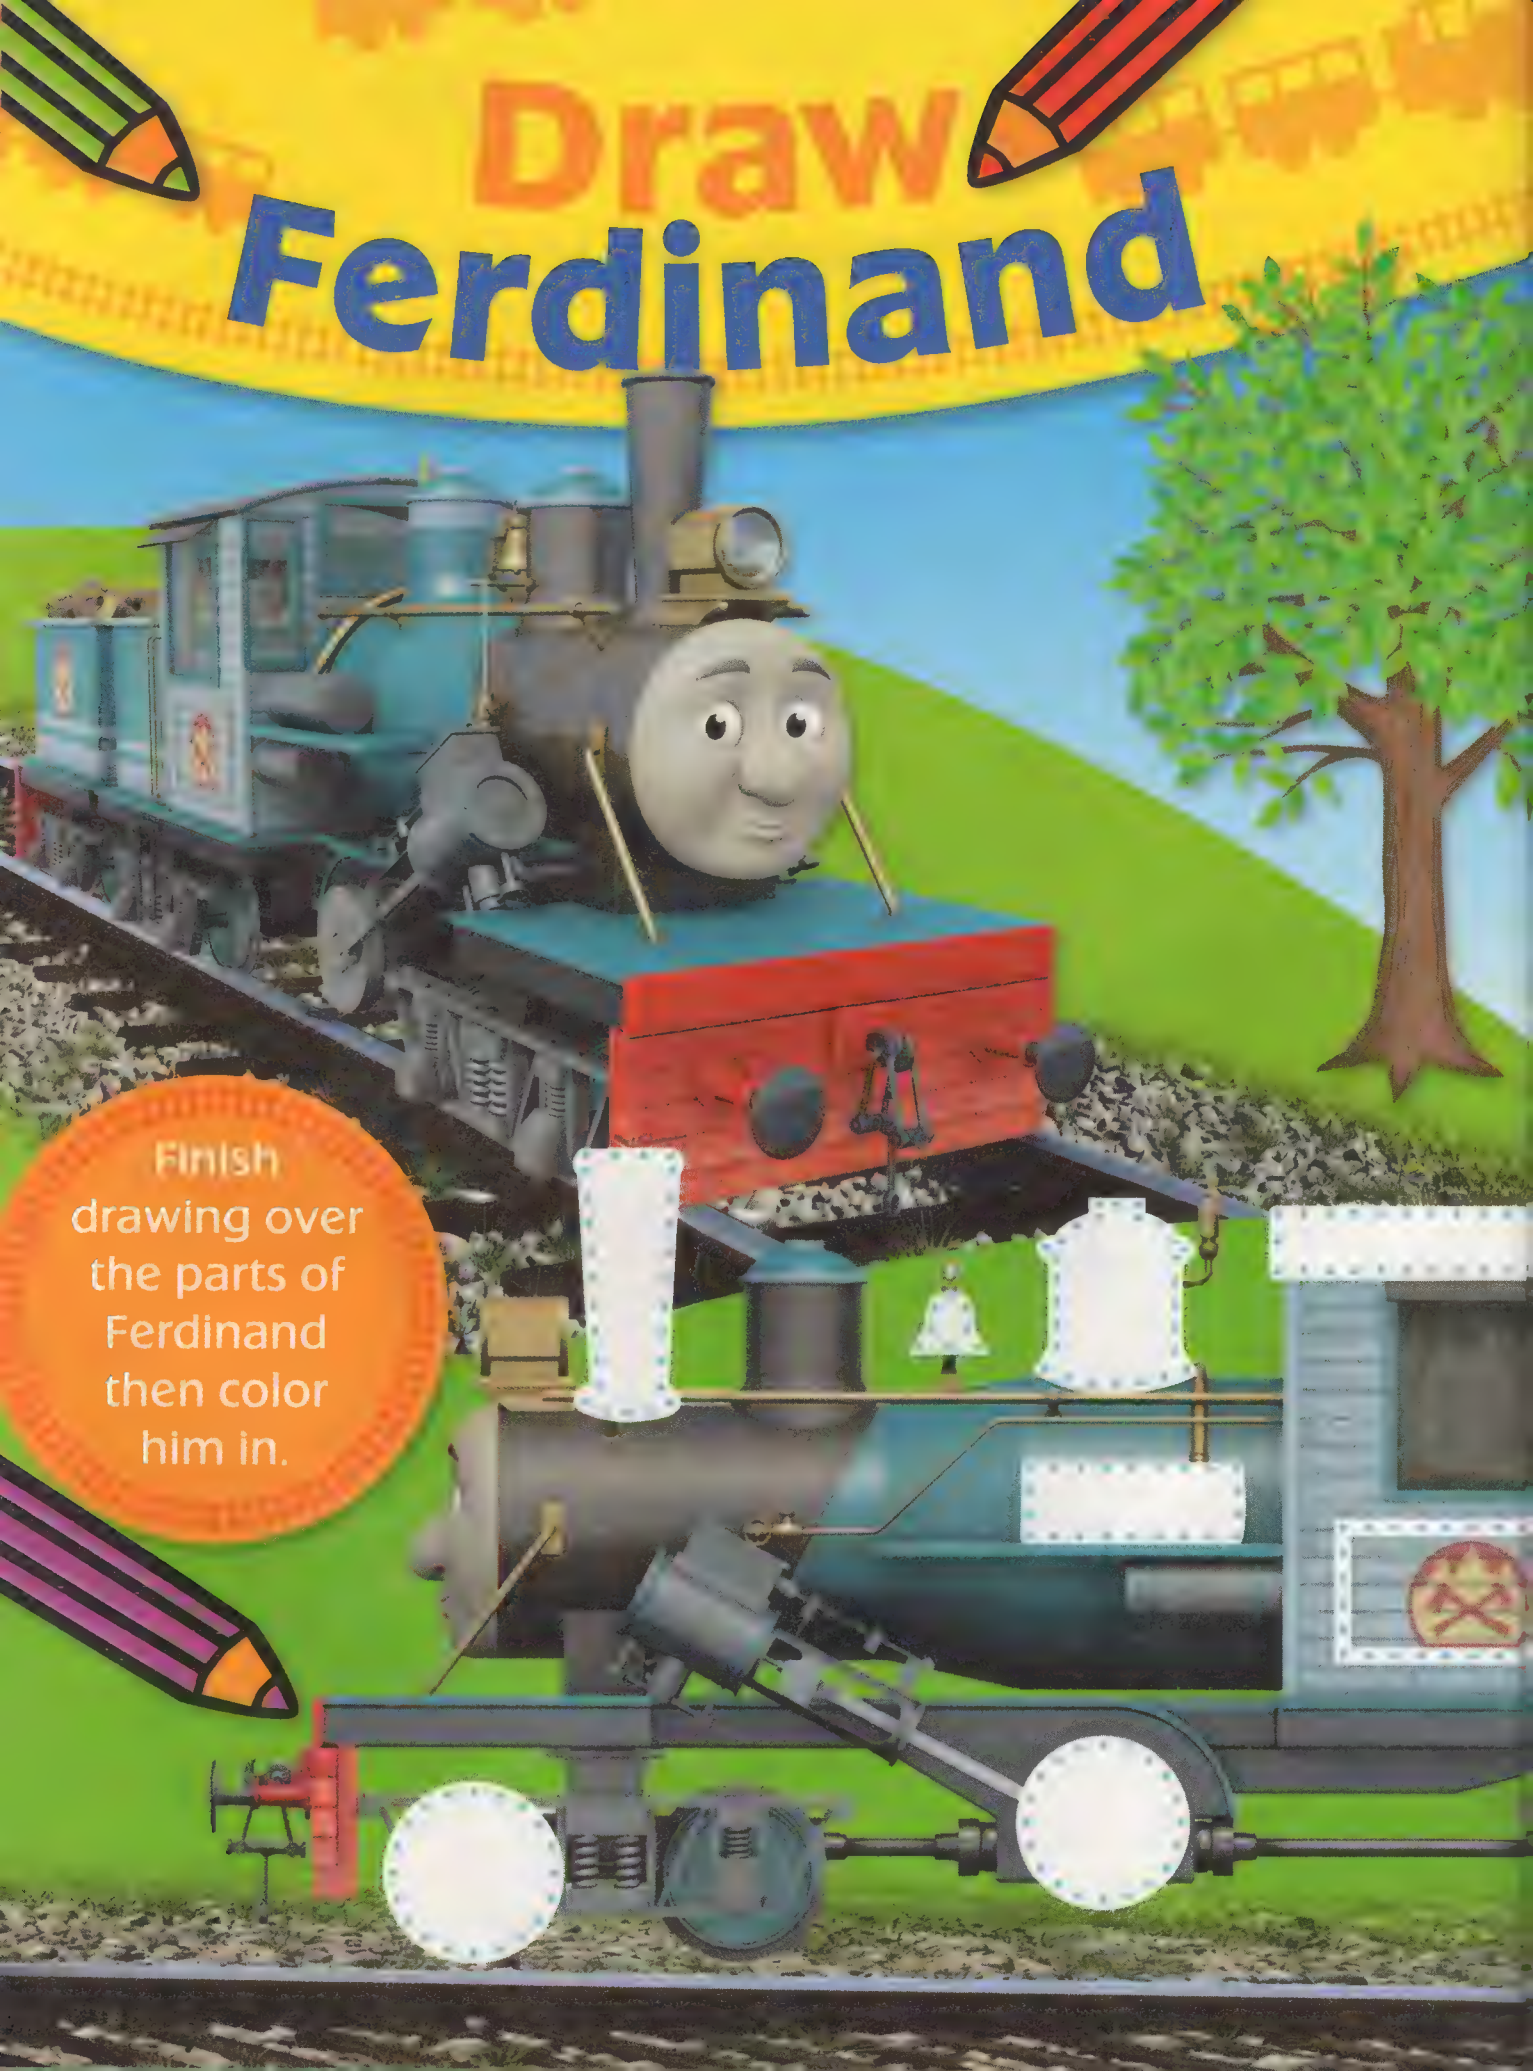
Draw Ferdinand

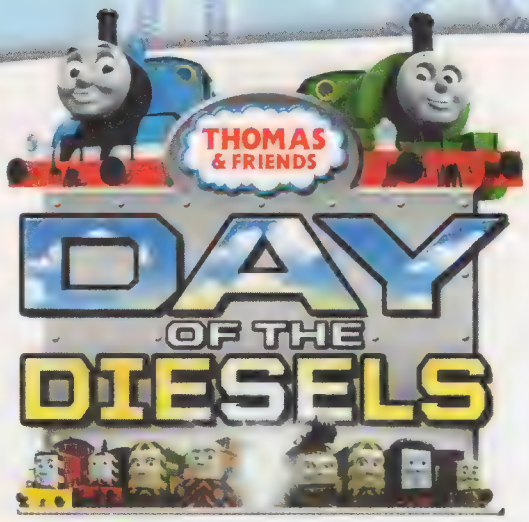


Finish drawing over the parts of Ferdinand then color him in.

Ferdinand is a gentle giant. You may have met him on Misty Island! He is a logging loco with Dash and Bash.

Ferdinand's whistle sounds like a bird!

Ferdinand also has a bell. Draw it in this space.



Two new engines had arrived on the Island of Sodor. "Belle and Flynn will help us fight fires," boomed Sir Topham Hatt. "Thomas, please show Belle around the Island. Percy, you are to get Flynn's hose at the Dieselworks."

"Thomas has a new friend, Percy!" teased Diesel. "He doesn't have time for you. We'll be your friends instead." Percy knew that Diesels were trouble but Thomas really was spending a lot of time with Belle. "Maybe the Diesels really can be my friends now," Percy thought hopefully.

Percy pulled into the old, broken down Dieselworks. It was a scary place for a Steamie! The windows were cracked and it looked empty. Suddenly, there was a loud roar. "I'm Diesel 10!" growled the huge engine. Percy got scared and left. He rushed back to tell Thomas about the Dieselworks. "Where's the hose?" Thomas asked.

Percy gasped, "Uh, oh! I gave it to the Diesels."

Thomas and Percy raced back to the Dieselworks to fetch the hose. When they got there, it was very dark. The Diesels crept out from the shadows and trapped poor Thomas! "You can stay here now," Diesel 10 scowled. "Percy, you are to take us to the Steamworks. We will not stay in these broken down buildings any longer!"

Percy and Thomas had been tricked. The Diesels wanted to take over the Steamworks and Thomas was now stuck at the Dieselworks!

Percy raced to Belle and Flynn. "We must save Thomas!" he puffed. Soon there was more trouble... the Dieselworks were on fire! Percy quickly found the hose. Belle and Flynn put the fire out and went to save Thomas. "Let's get back to the Steamworks," puffed Percy.

"Diesel 10!" boomed Sir Topham Hatt. "You can't take over the Steamworks. I was planning to fix your building all along!" Diesel 10 was surprised and happy to hear this.

After that, all the engines worked together to fix up the Dieselworks. "This new building is special," boomed Sir Topham Hatt, "because you all fixed it as a team. It makes me proud to see my Diesels and Steamies working together!"

Belle, Flynn, Percy, and Thomas smiled. "We're all friends now," puffed Percy. "And we're Really Useful!"
